WAYANG KULIT

Wayang Kulit is a traditional Balinese shadow puppet theatre. In 2008 Wayang Kulit was inscribed on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity by Unesco.

Wayang Kulit is a very old tradition that was probably brought over from India or China. In Javanese language wayang means shadow. In modern Javanese and Indonesian language wayang is most often associated with the puppet itself or the whole puppet theatre performance.

The puppets are crafted from buffalo skin and mounted on bamboo sticks. When held up behind a piece of white cloth, with an electric bulb or an oil lamp as the light source, shadows are cast on the screen.

A traditionally arranged performance comes along with a Gamelan orchestra and lasts from sunrise till sunset. The story is often highly dramatic and is accompanied by the audience's loud comments and laughter.
